Event details

- Date: 24th September 2016
- Place: Hobart Town Hall (on Macquarie St, between Elizabeth and Argyle Sts)
- Time: Ball-goers arrive from 7 and start dancing at 7:30, so Heritage Fiddles please arrive at 6:30. We will finish after Mrs G.S. Meredith's, after which As the Crow Flies will take over. This will be before the supper break, which is scheduled for 9:45. Anyone who needs to leave earlier may do so, and anyone who needs to hop off stage for a dance may do that too!
- Rehearsals: Every Wednesday, 5:30 to 6:30, upstairs at the Wesley Hall. We may schedule an extra rehearsal closer to the date for people who can't make Wednesdays but would like to play at the ball.
- Outfits: some of the dancers will be dusting off their 1866-style finery, which you may like to do if you are going to dance. Otherwise, your usual playing-on-the-Town-Hall-stage outfits will be great (i.e., what ever you think would be nice).
